It is a pleasure to serve our lodge as a Senior Warden. Certainly, a year that requires significant responsibilities and commitments. As I have always done before, I will continue to be involved in Masonic education. As the last topic I discussed is of most importance, I want to reiterate a couple of very important points.

First, our lodge is an image of King Solomon's Temple, both internally and externally. Therefore, we should always observe decorum, and act accordingly since we are meeting in a place that represents the Sanctum sanctorum or holiest place of the temple.

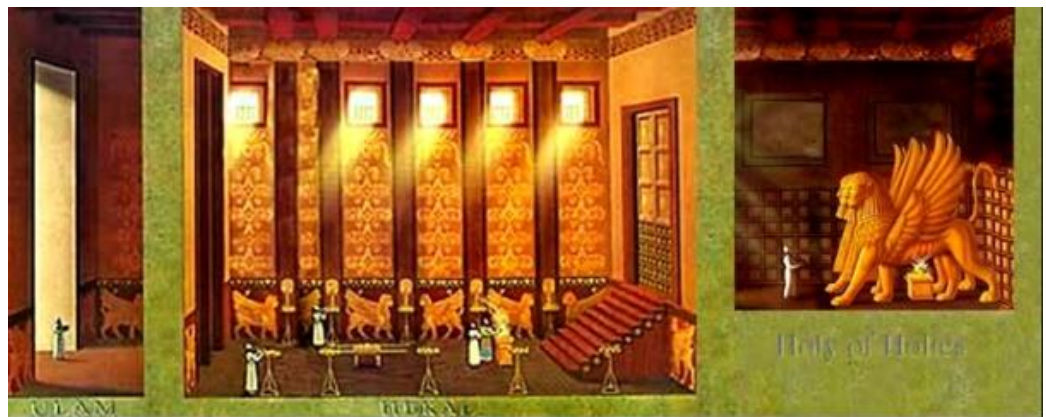

Also, our journey should always be one guided by the tools that we are given in our symbolism. In order for us to exemplify wisdom, strength and beauty in our actions, we have to refine the inner architecture of our souls, build our own internal Temple.

Looking forward to a great year. May brotherly love always prevail.

Ramon Ramirez, SW

MASONIC EDUCATION:

LODGE OFFICER TRAINING

Masonic Education Committee

The Committee on Masonic Education shall be composed of not fewer than five members of knowledge, dedication, and tact, of which at least one shall be a Past Master and Chairman appointed by the Worshipful Master, who shall be responsible for reporting to the Master on the Candidate's progress through the Three Symbolic Degrees and Masonic Education Program as prescribed by Regulation 37.12 and 37.18.

The Committee on Masonic Education shall have a Sub-Committee for the Masonic Education of Candidates and shall be called the "Lodge Mentor's Committee."

1. This Committee shall be composed of Past Masters, very knowledgeable Brothers or Brothers willing to invest the necessary time to become knowledgeable about all aspects of Freemasonry, with the same requirements for dedication and tact.
2. The Lodge Mentor shall not be the Catechism Instructor.
3. A Lodge Mentor is required to be knowledgeable in the following: Masonic history, tradition, decorum, conduct, Masonic Law, Lodge history, community history in regards to his own Lodge, and American history concerning Masonry.
4. The mentoring of Candidates shall be conducted according to GL-200 Instruction Booklet in The Lodge System of Masonic Education.
5. This committee shall report to the Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education on the Candidate's progress through the three Symbolic Degrees and Masonic Education. This Committee shall report to the Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education on the Candidate's progress through the Three Symbolic Degrees and Masonic Education.

MASONIC EDUCATION COMMITTEE

J. Dewey Hawkins is fortunate to have a dedicated group of Brothers comprising our Masonic Education Committee, chaired by our Senior Warden, Ramon Ramirez.

Brother Ramirez prepares and provides education to the Brethren at every gathering.

Brother Sol Goldenberg, a past Master, has requested—and I have approved—to be named Lodge Mentor. His influence on candidates and Brothers going through the Degrees will benefit them immensely.

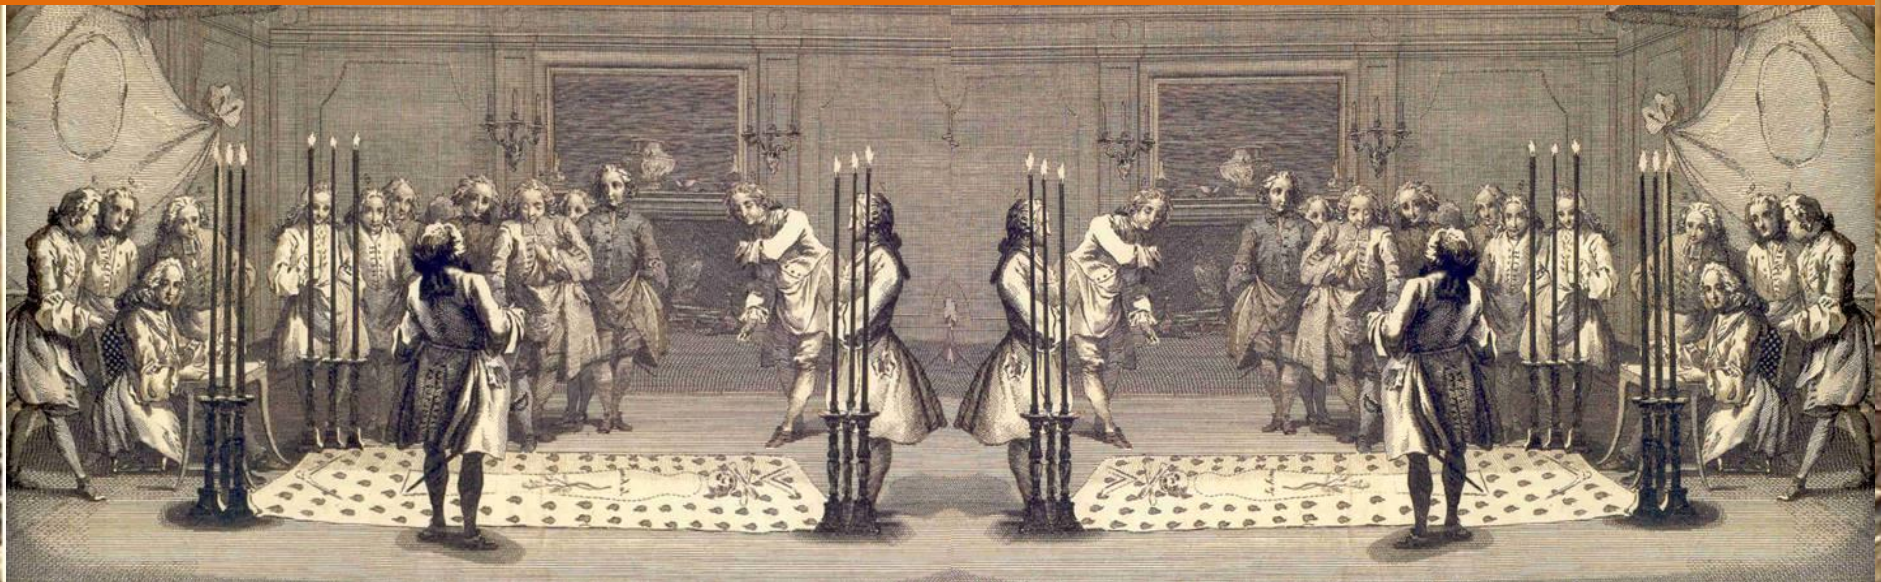

Brother Wisheart, a past Master, has agreed to be Catechism Instructor and I know his commitment and style bestow not just knowledge but also the valuable guidance that our youngest initiates need to become dedicated Master Masons.

Rounding out the Committee are myself and Brother Binder, a Past District Deputy Grand Master. His experience and commitment to our Lodge and Masonry in general make him a valuable asset to this committee.

FROM THE SOUTH (NOMINATED)

Dear Brothers,

I am honored to be nominated to serve you as your Junior Warden for the rest of the 2019 year.

Brother Yamil has served our lodge extremely well and he will be missed by all of us.

With the permission of our Worshipful Master, I would like to take over the responsibility of mentoring our potential candidates. I feel I have the experience and knowledge to do so. It is only through knowledge and enlightenment that our lodge will grow in numbers and strength.

Most fraternally,

Sol. Goldenberg PM
Junior Warden nominee 2019

J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge will observe its 60th anniversary this year and will commemorate that milestone by re-committing ourselves to education and inclusion of all Brothers, everywhere.

The Brothers of District 26 continue to work toward peace, cooperation and, especially, harmony. May we find it in our hearts to lay aside any past conflicts and/or resentments and work together as we are taught through our obligations and Holy Scripture.

I hope to bring education to the forefront of our Lodge by devoting time to general masonic education as well as specific excerpts from our educational materials, including the law digest and Book of Constitutions. These devotions will be short but, I hope, enlightening.

Finally, I want to remind everyone that our proceedings are solemn occasions that require a level of seriousness and decorum but that we are also men and, as such, a generous dose of levity is to be expected, even encouraged.

Can we be serious and still have fun? I believe we can.

May we govern our actions by the Square of Virtue,

James Freeborn, W.:M.:
