Hello brothers,

So here we are almost through June with a new slate of Grand Lodge officers. Locally I would like to welcome our new RW DDGM Michael Tishman and our new RH DI Hector Mirabile. I know the entire district joins me in wishing both of these wonderful brothers the best for this upcoming masonic year. Personally, I can attest to the fact that they are two of the nicest most masonic and most deserving brothers we could have hoped for. I look forward to traveling with our new DDGM as he makes his official visits to the lodges in our district this year. I will also be at our GMOV at the Broward Shrine Club on Friday August 9th. The next day, Saturday August 10th is an EA Degree at Doric Lodge followed by the GMOV for District 27 at the Scottish Rite Temple in Miami-I will be there as well. Hopefully many of you will be able to attend those two GMOV's at least in support of our DDGM, as well as any other GMOV's that you can attend.

Please note that on Saturday July 13th our RW DDGM is looking for assistance in cleaning and getting the Broward Shrine Club ready for the GMOV. Starting at 9:00am, coffee and donuts will be served (I can only hope there will be some jelly donuts!) along with pizza for lunch. It would be great to have a huge turnout of brothers to help get the job done-thank you in advance.

Open book and school of instruction as always is the first Wednesday and third Monday of the month at Doric Lodge. The books open up at 5:00pm with school of instruction from 7:00 to 8:00. Afterwards a group of us go to Lesters Dinner on State Road 84 to replenish all those used brain cells. I encourage everyone to take part-we always have a lot of fun on those special nights. RH Hector, it's such a treat having you guiding us this year.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at J. Dewey Hawkins Lodge for this month's Masters and Wardens.

With much fraternal love and affection,

Steve Rushefsky, PM President

Brethren,

With only a month under my belt as DDGM I have had the privileged of traveling with the GM across the state and I can optimistically say our MWGM John Westerman is leading us into a new era unlike we have seen (or heard) in the past. One that is positive and upbeat, and one that actually comes with a set of instruction to follow to ensure success - which I will be sharing in detail with my upcoming DDGMOV's starting this month. You may have already heard about the first item "Each One, Reach One". A great actionable to-do item that can double our numbers if each and every one of us just reaches out to one like-minded friend to invite him to dinner at your Lodge. It really is that simple. Each One, Reach One.

Next, I want to remind everyone about the GMOV to our 26th district which will be Friday August 9th at the Broward Shrine Club with the Tyled meeting to be held at Eureka North Shore Lodge No. 269 in Dania Beach. I will be asking for volunteers to help and we need to be WELL PREPARED for the Tyled meeting. As I have already spoken with many of you in private, I'm asking all Lodge Masters to fill officer chairs for the GMOV and we should get in a practice (or two) before game day.

Next, I want to remind everyone about our district website : www.26thdistrict.org. It contains lots of good information regarding schedules and activities around the district.

Lastly, I ask that you keep in mind these words spoken in our Lodge closing prayer, and to practice its message; "Teach us, O God, to realize the beauties of the principles of our time honored institution, not only while in the Lodge, but when abroad in the world." Walk the talk my brothers and be an example for others to want to follow.

School of instruction (7:00PM-8:00PM) July 15th 2019 at Doric Lodge No. 140

Dear Brothers,

We had a very instructive Open Books and School of Instructions in June and I would like to thank all that participated. Last month we reviewed The Adoptive Reception of the DDGM and we learned quite a lot and saw how to perform this ritual in proper form. This coming July 15th will be our only meeting and we will go over the Grand Visitations procedures since our Grand Master's visit to the 26th Masonic District will be August 9. All sitting Worshipful Masters are encouraged to attend along with their line.

I would also like to extend a standing invitation to all Worshipful Masters and their entire line to attend Open Books and School of Instructions. Additionally, the Lodge Instructors should be attending all the School of Instruction meetings to ensure they are providing the most correct rituals and procedures. I would also like to invite each Worshipful Master to poll their Lodge and submit to the DDGM any questions the Lodge may have of the Grand Master for his upcoming official visit. The GM will select through the DDGM the questions that will be entertained.

I wish all Brothers a happy and safe Fourth of July. It important that we spend some time reflecting on what this day means to us as Americans and the forming of our country. As a retired Army veteran, I find it most important that we continue our learning from the past and discuss the Revolutionary actions taken by certain people who were also Freemasons.

Fraternally,

R.: H.: Hector Mirabile P.M.

7:30 PM

in memory of
M.:W.: John E. Karroum

ALL Mighty Father

We humbly ask that you welcome into your loving embrace, the spirit of our dearly departed Brother-MW John Karroum, Grand Master of Masons.

He was a gentle man, who deeply cared for his family, his faith in the goodness of men, his love of the Fraternity, and the everlasting spirit of one's soul.

He gave his all to ensure that all these flourished.

His life's work was to heal the bodies of those afflicted.

His passion was Masonry. And he required that same passion of those he called friends.

His lust for education and deeper understanding of life's lessons, made him a man of deep conviction.

We are taught that You work in mysterious ways.

I guess You needed him at your side? Lord, You have taken from us a gentle soul, who I am proud to have called my friend. The world was a better place for him having been in it. And I am a better person for having known him.

Amen

RW Phil Slack PDDGM
